Ex-Detroit Police Chief James Craig, a Republican candidate for governor, plans to visit ex-President Donald Trump.

"I do have a plan to do that, but I'll just leave it there," Craig said Sunday, according to the Detroit News. "I am planning on a visit." He was warmly received at the Mackinac Republican Leadership Conference over the weekend.

Craig has embraced Trump, but has declined to answer media questions as to whether he'll echo the ex-president's mantra about fraudulent elections and other issues.

In July, at a speech in Jackson, Craig said he voted for Trump in 2016 and 2020. That could be a plus or minus, depending on the part of the state.
