

Money-back Guarantee: If the mailer submits an item at a designated USPS® Priority Mail Express® acceptance location on or before the specified deposit time, the Postal Service will deliver or attempt delivery to the addressee or agent before the applicable delivery date and time. Mailer may request the addressee's signature from the addressee upon delivery of the item by checking the "signature required" box at the time of mailing. If the Postal Service does not deliver or attempt delivery by the specified time and the mailer files a valid claim for a refund, the Postal Service will refund the postage, unless an exception applies. See Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 804.9.5.5 which is available at pe.usps.com.

Note: The Postal Service does not offer money-back guarantee for military or DPO shipments delayed due to customs inspections or the item was destroyed for an APO/FPO/DPO that was closed on the intended day of delivery or the delay was caused by one of the situations in DMM 804.9.5.6. Consult USPS.com or your local Post Office for information on delivery commitments and Priority Mail Express Military Service (PMEMS). For details, see DMM 703.2.6, which is available at pe.usps.com.

When a mailer submits a Priority Mail Express item requiring a signature and the Postal Service cannot deliver the item on the first attempt, the Postal Service leaves a notice for the addressee. If the addressee does not claim the item within 5 calendar days, the Postal Service returns the item to the sender at no additional charge.

Insurance coverage: The Postal Service provides insurance only in accordance with postal regulations in the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com. The DMM sets forth the specific types of losses that are covered, the limitations on coverage, terms of insurance, conditions of payment, and adjudication procedures. Certain items are not insurable. The DMM consists of federal regulations, and USPS personnel are not authorized to change or waive these regulations or grant exceptions. A mailer who requires information on Priority Mail Express insurance may contact the Postal Service before submitting an item. Limitations prescribed in the DMM provide, in part, that:

1. Insurance coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the insured level for the item.
2. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service includes coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

3. The Postal Service insures "nonnegotiable documents" (as defined by postal indemnity regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single catastrophic occurrence. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents mailed. Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.
4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without lengthy, currency, or tuition up to a maximum of $15 per mailpiece).
5. The Postal Service does not provide coverage for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Priority Mail Express items or for concealed damage, spoilage of perishable items, and articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail. Coverage, terms, and limitations are subject to change. For additional limitations and terms of coverage, consult the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com.

Indemnity Claims (Loss, Damaged or Missing Contents): Either the mailer or the addressee may file an indemnity claim for loss, damaged or missing contents. The claimant may submit the claim online at usps.com, or by mail; for more information see Publication 122, Domestic Claims Customer Reference Guide. The limitations for claims are as follows: claims for loss – no sooner than 7 days but no later than 60 days after the date of mailing; claims for damage or missing contents – immediately but no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Retain the original USPS retail receipt or electronic receipt for claims purposes. For claims involving damage or missing contents, also retain the article, container, and packaging for Postal Service inspection when requested.

Refund of Postage and Fees (Service Performance): If delivery of a Priority Mail Express (PME) item does not meet the scheduled delivery commitment(s), online and commercial customers may submit a refund request by visiting USPS.com. Retail customers may submit a refund request either online at USPS.com or at retail locations. Refund requests for postage must be submitted no later than 30 days from the date of mailing. Extra Services fees refund requests must be submitted no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Each tracking number can only be submitted once for all applicable refunds. Refund requests for PME or PME with Extra Services must be combined into a single submission.
